“ I have known Tommy since 1974, He did have a big heart and with his wife Judy, helped many people we both knew in their times of trouble and need. They have been two of the kindest and most generous people I have ever known. He was a loving father, grand father, uncle and friend. I always told him I loved him whenever we seen each other in the last few years, he was that special to me! We had a 44 year long joke about the song "Shutters and Boards", it was our little humor thing. Tommy will be missed by many! Rest in peace, my friend! My condolences to his family and friends.
