Toni loved deeply and was loved back. Her emotions ran deep. She was a gifted poet, writer, and organist. She loved using her hands to garden and create things of beauty through her various hobbies. Though raised in the city, she was a country girl through and through. She loved horseback riding and snuggling with her beloved cats. She was also a dog lover. She enjoyed country and classic rock music and loved to dance and sing. She was deeply loyal to Jesus and is now with him. Whenever you see the color purple, her favorite, remember her.

Memorial donations in Toni's name may be made to St. Jude Children's Hospital. In honor of her memory Visitation will be held on her birthday Wednesday, November 16, 2022 from 11:00 a.m. until 2:00 p.m. Followed by the Service and Graveside Service.
