“ I remember when Carolyn was expecting Travis, she came to our house to pick up Tracy who had been staying with us for a while, we hated to see our "adopted big sis" leave us but glad that she was going home to help her mom with the new baby!!! Tracy was such an awesome sister, I remember going with her to take "the babies" as she called them, to the mall to have their picture taken with the Easter Bunny...many good memories of Carolyn and her beautiful babies she was such a loving mother...God Bless you all, I am truly sorry for the loss of your beloved brother and the sorrow you all must endure again, our hearts and prayers are with you all.
