It's hard when you miss people. But you know, if you miss them it means you were lucky. It means you had someone special in your life, someone worth missing.

Troy was a cattleman who loved raising his own calves. He enjoyed going to auctions, going on trial rides with his wife, and making rounds visiting with his friends. Troy had made many lifetime friends and enjoyed giving all of them a hard time. He was a generous man who helped many.

A Celebration of Life was held at Arrowhead in Cedar Hill, Missouri. Memorials may be sent to The Jefferson County Cattlemen's Association, c/o David Bonacker, 6975 Cedar Hill Rd., Cedar Hill, MO 63016. The memorials will be used for the 4H kids who participated in the County Fair. Troy was always a big supporter of them. “ Troy was one of the best friends that you could have. He let both my boys live with him while they were attending college closer to St. Louis. He was like a second dad to both of them. They valued his knowledge and what he thought about different things that they might need a different perspective on, other than their parents point of view. Our friendship has never waivered, we have been there for each other over many many long years. We have been through alot of good times together, and also some bad. I still remember him telling my boys that no matter how tough it got, in school, that were going to finish. Billy & Robert loved Troy very very much, as we all did. Troy just had one of those personalities, that you couldn't help but love. He just told you how it was, wheather you wanted to hear it or not. He never sugar coated anything, but he still had a big heart. I don't know to many people as giving and helpfull as Troy. You will be very sadly missed. WE ALL LOVE YOU!
