Velma was an online member of Jimmy Swaggart Ministries and enjoyed watching their daily programming. In her younger years, she loved attending church, teaching Sunday School and playing the organ, but most of all she loved Jesus. One of her favorite things to do was watching the St. Louis Cardinals and cheering them on. She loved flowers and enjoyed working in her garden in her spare time. Velma treasured the time she spent with her family, and was blessed to take care of four of her great-grandchildren. If you knew Velma, you knew that she was a great encourager and didn't talk bad about anyone and didn't allow anyone else to do so in her presence. She will be fondly remembered and dearly missed by all who knew and loved her.
