“ Judy and Family
I am so sorry for your loss. I'll always have fond memories of Uncle Vic (Babe, as he was called years ago). I'll never forget learning he was our Santa Claus when we were kids and we had Christmas over at Grandma's and Grandpa's. Or when he got together for a week every year to go hunting with Grandpa, Donnie, Ray and many other friends. One hunting story stuck in my head that probably at the time wasn't very funny to Vic but he laughed about it when it was brought up later. Donnie came across a snake and threw it at Vic and it wrapped around his neck. Donnie didn't know he had his rifle loaded...luckily no one was hurt. So many good memories. I wish I could have visited more often. He will be missed.
