“ RIP Vincent aka. ChiChi PanHead . We will all miss you. It's really strange when I'm in my bedroom Steves in his room talking on his phone. I could tell exactly who he was talking to, either talking to Spanky who's favorite line to say to me was "Hey G this is a A-B conversation to C my way out of it." Spanky knew how to push my buttons. Not long after Spanky left us it was Jon DeBold was called to leave us. We miss Jon's presence in the house 🏠. He'd come upstairs and say "Hey Glor, do you know anything about how this electronics works. Of course I'd try my best to figure it just out. Now you left us to Chichi you were one in our lives since the late 70s. Steve would be yelling at you about something or another. You were such a Loving, caring, and LOVEL TRUE TO THE HEART kind of friend. When ever Steve needed to brake away for awhile he would just call you and tell you he was coming to get your motorcycle or your truck for a few days. You never told him no, because you knew Steve would take care of it.

Well our dear friend we're not saying goodbye because we will all meet together on the other side.

Keep a chair ready for sharing our stories again.

LOVE TO YOU.
