“ I was fortunate to be able to spend more time with you these last several months. Watching you play the piano only a few months ago is a memory I'll always treasure. I think I was the last to hear you play. Once when you said it was a bad note(I didn't hear it), you said my daughter Mary is going to get this piano tuned for me. When I would give you a piece of pie you would ask me, "you know what's better than a piece of apple pie? Another piece of apple pie." I know you had a hard time remembering my name lately but I loved that you referred to me as your girlfriend. So my sweet father-in-law, rest in heaven. You've definitely earned your wings. Love your girlfriend.
