“ You can't put all the description of Virgil in a small space. We met Virgil and Louise when they moved to the lake, where they kept a beautiful home and grounds. We instantly became neighbors and friends. He was always very concerned about our family and what we were doing. Although he was fiercely independent he was always ready to help you. I have a special needs grandson that thought the sun rose and set in his 'Virg' and 'Weze'. 'Virg' was his buddy and it's going to be especially hard on him not to have 'Virg' to talk to. We loved Virgil as family and will miss him beyond words. May God Bless you Virgil as you walk with Him in eternity. Till we meet again!

“ Our deepest sympathy to you all. There is nothing harder than losing one you love so much. We know he was extremely kind because he couldn't have raised a nicer, kinder son who would do anything to help anybody. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ Our thoughts are with you all. Uncle Virgil was the kindest, gentlest and funniest person we knew. He always had a kind word and knew the right things to say when my parents passed. He was more than willing to do anything he could for anybody. I fondly remember weekends at our house working on cars and boats and the family camping trips to Table Rock when I was young. Way too many precious memories to relate. You will be dearly missed.

“ I consider myself to be very blessed to have the best father-in-law that a person could ever wish for. Virgil was kind and gentle, always thinking of others, and raised a remarkable son, I will miss him terribly.
