

Vivian L. Berry

November 13, 1950 - March 17, 2026

Vivian (nee Covington) Berry of Cedar Hill, Missouri, was born November 13, 1950 in Tennessee to Jim and Mary (nee Hawks) Covington and entered into rest Tuesday, March 17, 2026 in Cedar Hill, Missouri at the age of 75 years. Vivian had a courageous battle, determination and she lived with unwavering hope. She passed peacefully at home surrounded by family.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Jim and Mary (nee Hawks) Covington; four (4) brothers, and one (1) nephew.

She is survived by her sister, Pat (Jim) Aubuchon; twelve (12) nieces and nephews; seventeen (17) great-nieces and great-nephews; along with numerous other extended family and friends.

Vivian Berry was a woman defined by her strong work ethic and unwavering dedication in all that she did. She took great joy in life's simple pleasures, especially shopping and spending time doing the things she loved. In her younger years, Vivian enjoyed playing horseshoes and attending company picnics, where she made many cherished memories. She had a special fondness for her television programs and could often be found with the TV on, making sure she didn't miss a single show. Vivian also found satisfaction in yard work and home renovation projects, always keeping busy and taking pride in her accomplishments. Above all else, she treasured her family deeply, and the love she had for them was the heart of her life. She will be fondly remembered and dearly missed by all who knew and loved her.
