Walt was a hard working mechanic who devoted 29 years of his career at Hogan Transportation before he retired. He loved his family. He had a witty sense of humor and enjoyed spending his free time beating his family and friends at horseshoes and darts. You could frequently find him enjoying a couple beers while he barbequed ribs, burgers or making his famous catfish nuggets. He loved to dance with his late wife, Margaret or relax and watch westerns. He spent countless hours with his cherished grandchildren, who he doted on. He was a devoted husband, wonderful father, dedicated grandfather and great-grandfather and a trusted friend to many. He will be fondly remembered and dearly missed by all who knew and loved him. In lieu of flowers, please make memorial donations in Walter's honor to the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society.
