“ So sorry for the family's loss. This is a devastating moment for the family, but reflecting on all the warm memories you shared with him will soften the pain. May you be blanketed with all the love and kind deeds of other. Reflect on the promising words at Isaiah 25: 8 will uplift your hearts during challenging moments.

“ When I was a kid our families would spend the summers camping. On one trip camping at dd bridge, we found a frog in our tent in the morning. Uncle Wayne teased me for what felt like years, he would say that I had a prince in my tent and I kissed him and turned him into a frog. As a young girl this was so embarrassing! The madder I got the more teasing was thrown my way. Looking back, I wouldn't have had it any other way.
