

Whitney Amanda Williams

June 21, 1989 - June 18, 2024

Williams, Whitney Amanda, of St. Louis, Missouri, was born June 21, 1989 in St. Louis, Missouri to Neal and Rowena (nee King) Hurst and entered into rest Tuesday, June 18, 2024 in St. Louis, Missouri at the age of 34 years.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Neal and Rowena (nee King) Hurst; her sister, Nicole Jones; and her brother, Marcus Hurst.

She is survived by her spouse, Kiwuan Williams; her siblings; Neal (Tatanisha) Hurst, Nickeyah (Jay) White, Teneal Drayton, Nina King, Nicole King, Vaughn Taylor, Shania (Jabori) Mclennan, and Tamera Terry; along with numerous other extended family and friends.

Whitney was a loving wife, beloved daughter, devoted sister, doting aunt, and cherished friend to many.

She was a hardworking and ambitious individual who brought joy and laughter to everyone around her. Her generosity knew no bounds, and she had an incredible ability to make people laugh and feel special.

She had a deep passion for travel, often embarking on adventures with her family, especially her adored nieces and nephews. These trips created memories that will be cherished forever.

Whitney pursued a degree in nursing, a field she was deeply passionate about. Although she was unable to complete her degree and begin her nursing career, her dedication and love for helping others were evident to all who knew her.

A self-proclaimed fashionista, Whitney loved shopping and had an eye for the finer things in life. She had a talent for capturing life's moments through photography, leaving behind a beautiful collection of memories.

Her spirit and love will live on in the hearts of her family and friends. Whitney will be deeply missed but never forgotten.
