“My Uncle Bill was a uniquely special person. He was the kind of man who would sacrifice his vacation time to take a young niece to St. Louis attractions while she was visiting his daughter. As a veteran, he was proud to have served our country. He made other valuable contributions to improve the human condition, such as teaching anatomy and physiology to nursing students and developing important pharmaceuticals through research. He was married to the love of his life for over sixty-five years and accomplished a feat that few men can claim...he was unequivocally adored by his mother-in-law. As an avid reader, he remained current on world affairs. His appreciation for nature was displayed in his many beautiful works of art. As a devout Catholic, he faithfully prayed for his three children, eight grandchildren and five great-grandchildren whom he adored. His quick sense of humor was contagious. While the world is much better for Bill Baum having been here, Heaven surely has more laughter now that he has arrived. He will be sadly missed by those who knew and loved him. To my aunt and cousins, who are grieving because you loved deeply: grief is tremendous, but love is greater, transcends all time and space and heals broken hearts. May God bless you, and may Jesus enfold you in His loving arms to comfort you and give you peace.
