Bill grew up in St. Louis until 1955 when his family moved out to Eureka, Missouri, where he spent his days playing on the Big River. In 1963 he married his one and only Sharon Mary Weggenmann. They moved to House Springs, Missouri, where his wife and him built their life long home and raised their three children; William, Robert and Kelly Schmidt.

Their favorite place to sail was Carlyle Lake, he loved to sail with other members and friends of the Carlyle Sailboat Yacht Club. Not only did they spend most weekends there making memories with sailing parties and playing games, Bill served two Commodore terms for the Yacht Club. He was always up for a good time and loved to laugh with a good joke, he will be forever remembered by his many friends and family.
