“ Our lives are never the same when we lose our family members. Each of them are special to us and formulate who we are as we grow. Uncle Bill was that special person who touched all of our lives and his personality, sense of humor, confidence and swagger, and his love of God and family was illustrated daily. His legacy lives within each of us each day. We all have wonderful memories of this wonderful man.

“ I remember when I worked at the Lander Co. Next to P D George one Summer and I rode to work with Uncle Bill everyday with a commute that was well over an hour every day .. Got to know my Uncle well that Summer realizing that he sacrificed that daily commute his entire working years so his family could enjoy a life growing up in the Country .. That's just the way he rolled .. RIP Uncle Bill..
