“ I am very sorry for your lost.

Chris Casper - September 01, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Even though I do not know Brian or his family I wanted to extend my deepest sympathy to his family. Also I wanted to say, Thank You Brian. Because of you, and countless others like you, I can sleep safe at night. You will never be forgotten. You are my hero. I am sure you are being rewarded for the short life you lived here on earth. You have accomplished more than most do with many years under their belt. Every American is in your debt. I will pray for you and your family everyday.

Mike McCarthy - August 28, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Bro,

We will miss you more than words can describe!

But our memories and your smile will live with us forever!!

I can't wait to jump with you again on the other side!

Blue Skies!

Love, Tim, Theresa, Bradley and Caiti

“ My family and I just want you to know that even people like us that did not know Brian are truly grateful for the service he did for this country. As we are able to go about our daily life with complete freedom...we are forever grateful for the lives sacrificed to provide us this freedom. Thank you William Brain Woods that I am able to speak my mind, practice my religion, and display my American flag proudly. You will be remembered by millions of Americans for your service. May Jesus welcome you into his arms and provide you with the treasures you have more than earned during your short but meaningful life! God Bless the Woods family and I am sorry for your loss.
